

Cooperative Education

Cooperative Education courses allow students to receive college credits for working in jobs related to their major. Students are supervised by College faculty and receive college credits for working in jobs related to their majors.