

CISM135 : Computer Programming-C++

This course covers programming concepts and methodologies using the C++ programming language. It emphasizes structured programming techniques in procedural programs. The student will learn data types, expressions, control structures, functions, arrays and file management.

Credits 4

Lecture Hours 4

Lab/Clinical/Field Study Hours 0

Prerequisite Courses

CISM125: Introduction to Computers