

ESLN092: Advanced ESL II

Course will further develop the ability of students, whose native language is not English, to read, write, listen and speak at a High-Advanced level. Students will develop fluency and clarity in their writing and pronunciation while developing their vocabulary in standard American English to read and listen successfully. A grade of C or better is required to progress to the next level.

Credits: 6

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 6

Prerequisites:

ESLN090 with a C or better or ESL Placement Test

Program: English as a Second Language