

ESLN095: American History and Citizenship

Students develop stronger English language skills from studying key events in American history, icons and issues of democracy and citizenship that have shaped our national identity. Also, students explore the meaning and correct use of common sayings referencing these events and ideas. Class meets two hours per week in person and an additional two hours per week online.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 2

Lecture Hours: 2

Prerequisites:

ESLN090 with a grade of C or better or Placement Test score

Program: English as a Second Language